

Alexandria Gazette.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEB. 23, 1910.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Sun and Tide Table.

Sun rises tomorrow at 6:40 and sets at 5:47. High water at 8:19 a. m. and 8:37 p. m.

Weather Probabilities.

For this section fair and colder tonight and Thursday; cold wave tonight; minimum temperature tonight about 10 degrees; brisk and possibly high northwesterly winds.

BASKETBALL TONIGHT.

The Y. M. S. L. senior basketball five, champions of Alexandria, will line up against the fast team of the Catholic University of America, of Brookland, D. C., tonight. The following will be the line-up:

Catholic University. Y. M. S. L. Seniors.
Cantwell.....F.....Williams
Cassidy.....C.....Owens
Greer.....Center.....Tommy
Tobin.....G.....Patterson
O'Donnell.....E. G.....Cookrell

Between the halves of the big game the Lyceum Juniors will line up against the crack team of the St. Dominic A. A. of Washington, D. C. The following will be the line-up:

St. Dominics A. A. Y. M. S. L. Reserves.
Marsden.....L. F.....Nevett
Walsh.....C.....Owens
Collins.....Center.....Boland
Marsden.....L. G.....Hayden
Kulle.....E. G.....Hill, Gorman

THE COLUMBIA BANQUET.

The banquet given last night by the Columbia Steam Fire Engine Company at their hall was one of the most pleasant affairs of the season. There was a large attendance and all present experienced a pleasant evening.

President William A. Smoot presided and a blessing was invoked upon the feast and feasters by Rev. J. M. Holmes, of the Methodist Protestant Church.

Speeches were made during the evening by J. B. N. Curtis, Sidney Mankin, Rev. Mr. Holmes and Mark L. Price, jr. Letters of regret announcing their inability to be present were received from Chief Wagner, of Washington, and Chief Petty, of this city.

Members of the company acted as ostlers for the occasion, and their ordinary skill showed to the best advantage.

DISTINGUISHED WITNESSES.

A young couple, the man from Washington and the lady from Fairfax, came here yesterday and after a little trouble, the day being a holiday, secured a marriage license and proceeded to the residence of Rev. O. D. Bulla to have the ceremony performed. Gov. Mason and Congressman Carlin happened to be guests of Mr. Bulla at the time and when the couple saw that the latter was busy they offered to retire but were invited to come right in, being assured that the ceremony would be performed at once. They were then presented to the governor and congressman who at once offered to become the legal witnesses to the marriage. After the ceremony it was suggested that the witness fee of a kiss be paid the two distinguished visitors by the bride, but this was not received with favor by the new groom, and the blushing bride and her awaiting retired in confusion leaving the witness fee unpaid.

TO BE PLACED ON POTOMAC ROUTE.

The new side wheel passenger and freight steamer Three Rivers, built by the Maryland Steel Company for the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway Company, which was accepted several days ago, has been placed on the route between Baltimore and the Potomac. She will be in command of Capt. W. O. Goughron and will leave on her initial trip next Monday. The Three Rivers is now at Baltimore receiving her equipment, which is expected to be all on board today, when she will be given a short trip down Patuxent to test her compass.

ITALIAN FINED.

John Rubino, an Italian 20 years old, of Washington, was arrested last night by Officer Knight as a suspicious character. Rubino it is alleged went to several residences, and when any one responded, asked "Is your daughter in?" It was also said that he was taking down the numbers on houses. In his pocket was a handbook bearing a Washington address and a number of cards bearing suggestive pictures. He was fined $5 in the Police Court this morning.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Eaton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Leroy Davis, colored, charged with assault and beating Emma Glasco, was fined $5.

John Rubino, arrested as a suspicious character, was fined $5.

Wm. McGuire, charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was fined $10.

Wm. Fowler and Oscar Patton, charged with vagrancy, were fined $5 each.

Emma Glasco, colored, charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

EAR SPLIT.

A colored man named Ed. Grinnell came to the station house last night with his left ear split and blood on his coat and shirt. He said his wife had attacked him at the supper table and inflicted the injury from which he was suffering. Officer Knight put a bandkerchief around the wound and sent him to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment.

OPERA HOUSE.

An entire change of programme will be given this evening by the Acme Comedy Company and judging by the popularity of this quartet of players a full house will doubtless greet them. Owing to the unusually large crowds seeking admission this week the management advises patrons to secure reserved seats in advance, thus preventing the usual rush at the box office at the last moment by those seeking choice seats.

DEATHS.

Mr. William H. Bond died at his residence, 530 Duke street, at an early hour this morning. The deceased had been suffering from paralysis for several months. Mr. Bond leaves a widow and four children—two sons and two daughters. The deceased was a native of St. Mary's county, Md. He was a stationary engineer by occupation.

Benjamin Carter, colored, died at his home on south Columbia street, a day or two ago. The deceased was a native of Fairfax county. He was 48 years old.

Masonic Day.

Closing Scenes of the Most Notable Masonic Festivities in Alexandria's History.

The biggest event that occurred in the country yesterday was the celebration of Washington's birthday in Alexandria by the Masonic fraternity and it was also the occurrence of the assembling as many Masonic celebrities as had ever gathered together at one time in any one city in the United States. The grand masters of many states, or their representatives, men high up in political life, with men in humbler walks of life all gathered on the level to pay homage to the memory of the Great Washington and to take part in the movement inaugurated to build a memorial temple fitting to his memory. It is the purpose of Alexandria-Washington Lodge, with the aid of the Masons of the country, to raise a large sum to build and endow the memorial. The institution will be unique among the memorials of the world, and will permit every grand jurisdiction to honor every Mason it deems to be deserving of a place in its hall of fame, a photograph and a biography.

The present lodge rooms contain Washington relics of inestimable value and these it is proposed to place in the new building, which is to be fire proof.

An account of the proceedings of yesterday up to the time the Gazette went to press was published in our issue of that day.

About the time the Gazette was being put to press yesterday afternoon the members of the fraternity and the many visiting brethren from different states of the union, having returned from their visit to Mount Vernon, had gathered in the Masonic Temple where the exemplification of the work of the third degree was about to be conferred upon Mr. Lawrence Washington, the last male child born at Mount Vernon, he being a son of the late John Augustine Washington. The lodge room was densely crowded and remained so for several hours, or until about 8:30 o'clock, at which time the company departed for Armory Hall, where the banquet was held.

The degree was conferred by the Illinois team, which is composed of four district deputy grand masters and seven grand lecturers of the Grand Lodge of Illinois, which with their brethren members seventeen in all. Ora E. Chapin is worshipful master; J. B. Rosch, senior warden; A. O. Novada, junior warden; W. H. Bled, senior deacon, and Samuel W. Fitch, junior deacon.

The proceedings were witnessed by the largest assemblage ever seen in an Alexandria lodge room, and it was generally admitted that the work was performed in a perfect, impressive and interesting manner. There was no semblance of a hitch from start to finish, each member of the team showing remarkable proficiency in the particular part he played. Many were unable to gain entrance into the lodge room and witness the work, and regrets were expressed by all such.

The curtain rose upon the last act of the proceedings incident to the celebration of Washington's birthday about nine o'clock last night when over four hundred members of the craft, after Alexandria-Washington Lodge had been closed in due and ancient form, marched from the Masonic Temple to Armory Hall where all things had been prepared for a royal banquet. The hall was ablaze with electric bulbs, enchanting music was being discoursed and the tables displayed the handiwork of experts.

After all the guests, the members of the Alexandria-Washington Lodge, and resident Masons had taken their places at the tables, Mr. Charles H. Callahan, master of Alexandria-Washington Lodge, called the company to order when Rev. O. D. Bulla, pastor of the M. E. Church South, invoked a blessing, after which the discussion of the feast proceeded. The following was the menu:

(Cherrystones)

Fried Oysters a la Mt. Vernon

Celery Oyster Cocktail Queen Olives

Cold Virginia Turkey Cranberry Sauce

Cold Virginia Ham Virginia Ham

Lobster Salad Tongue Chicken Salad

Saratoga Chips Banquet Rolls

Chow Chow Sliced Florida Tomatoes

Ice Cream Fruit Assorted Cakes

Roquefort Cigars Coffee

The string band, which occupied the southwest corner of the hall, discoursed "The Sawney River," "Old Black Joe," "Massa's in the Cold, Cold Ground," "Dixie," and other southern songs, and cheers and yells at times sent the building. When the band struck up "The Star-Spangled Banner" the banqueters seemed to have lost their heads, and the company rose to their feet and cheered and yelled lustily.

The feast continued about an hour before the worshipful master called the assemblage to order. After all present had regaled themselves abundantly, and the luncheon having been satisfied all present prepared themselves for the feast for the soul which flowed until midnight.

After the master had made a few appropriate observations concerning the anniversary which is annually celebrated by the Alexandria-Washington Lodge, he extended a hearty welcome to the assemblage. The master also stated that prominent Masons had sent regrets at their inability to be present. He also announced that Governor Mason had requested to be excused from making a speech, as he had been speaking at the exercises during the day; besides he had to leave earlier than he desired in order to catch the train for Richmond. The grand master of the State, William B. McChesney, was also excused from making a speech, as he had taken a prominent part in the proceedings incident to the anniversary during the day.

The worshipful master then introduced Hon. Jacob M. Givock Dickinson, secretary of war, who, the former said, had come to represent President Taft who was unable to be present.

The secretary said he didn't want to be understood that he had been sent to Alexandria on the occasion, but would state at the outset that he came because he wanted to be present. He heartily endorsed the movement toward the erection of a memorial temple in Alexandria, and believed members of the craft from all sections of the United States would vie with old Virginia in the work. The speaker in referring to George Washington, his Masonic career and his services to the craft in presiding over the lodge bearing his name, called attention to the fact that he came from Tennessee where Andrew Jackson, another illustrious American, was grand master of the state. This announcement was received with tremendous applause. Mr. Dickinson expressed his great satisfaction at being one of the happy gathering, and said probably if Masons had come together in days of yore as at present there would probably have been no serious sectional differences. He took his seat amidst great applause.

The next speaker was Hon. Champ Clark. This was not the first time Mr. Clark had spoken in Alexandria, and he met the same hearty welcome as on the previous occasions. He said four Alexandria Masons had attacked him and urged him to come to this banquet, and the quartette being irresistible and he at the same being desirous of mingling with Alexandria brethren, the invitation was quickly accepted. The speaker said he was glad to be present and pleased to know that it is proposed to erect a masonic memorial temple in Alexandria. Mr. Clark's remarks, as is always the case, were at times humorous and at others savored of pathos.

He quoted scripture, giving chapters and verses, with the alacrity of a minister of the gospel. He said he had during the evening been mistaken for a reverend gentleman who, it had been announced, was to be present, which reminded him of another incident in his life when he was mistaken for a son of the emerald isle for a priest. Mr. Clark then, in a more serious vein, spoke of the institution of Masonry, its tenets and principles, and said the substance of it all could be told in the simple words of the parable of the Good Samaritan. His tribute to Washington was most interesting, as was also his glances at the history of his times. Mr. Clark was heartily applauded.

Hon. James D. Richardson, sovereign grand commander of the southern jurisdiction of Scottish Rite Masons, was the next speaker. He is an able man, and he carried the history of the two great rites in Masonry the Yorks and the Scottish. He handed his subject with skill and his remarks were greatly enjoyed.

Grand Master Shropok, of Maryland, was the next speaker, and as he arose the band struck up "Maryland, my Maryland," which sent thrills through the company and there was great cheering. His speech was brief, but interesting throughout.

Past Grand Master Sisson, of Mississippi, (now a member of Congress), followed. His was one of the most interesting speeches of the evening, and his remarks brought forth much applause. Among other things he called attention to the fact that 52 out of 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence were Masons. "Masonry and liberty were the principles which had aided in the uplifting of the human race."

J. H. Carroll, grand master of Kentucky, and Oscar Lawler, past grand master of California, were the last speakers. Their remarks were brief but appropriate.

Messrs. George H. Evans and Kenneth W. Ogden at times during the evening enlivened the occasion with vocal selections which were much enjoyed.

At midnight the company arose and sang "Auld Lang Syne," after which they left the hall amid handclapping and adieux, all feeling that it was good for them to have been there.

NOTES.

Among the echoes of the Mason's day yesterday much favorable mention is made of the dinner given the invited guests of Alexandria-Washington Lodge, at the Hotel Rammel. Yesterday's paper could not allow ample space to the affair. The dining room was tastefully decorated with evergreen, red and white carnations with violets forming the prevailing decoration of the day, red, white and blue—furnished by the Kramer Company.

The menu was a very elaborate one, and everything had been arranged in a manner in keeping with this Virginia style as follows:

Cherrystones Oysters

Celery Chicken Consomme

Reception Wafers

Roast Young Turkey with Oysters

Cranberry Sauce Tenderloin of Beef larded,

Creamed Mashed Potatoes

Cauliflower, butter sauce

Asparagus on toast French Peas

Lettuce and Tomato Salad

Martha Washington Rolls

Old Virginia Corn Pone

English Plum Pudding

Ice Cream Lind. George Washington

Bon Bons Chocolate Cigars

Beets Coffee

The George Washington ice cream was furnished by H. Bloch.

Senators Owen of Oklahoma, and Martin of Virginia, and Rev. J. Wesley Hill, of New York, who were expected to speak at the banquet were unavoidably detained in Washington, but sent regrets. Fraternal letters were received from Liberty Lodges, of England, and of Beverly, Massachusetts.

As stated yesterday a magnificent wreath was placed upon the tomb of Washington by a large delegation of Alexandria and visiting Masons. After the ceremony Superintendent Dodge, of Mt. Vernon, who acted as escort to the visitors, very kindly took them through the mansion, opening all the rooms to them. This courtesy was most highly appreciated by the Masons. A picture of the visitors was taken at the tomb.

Messrs. C. H. Callahan, A. G. Usher and J. F. Birrell today acted as an escort to the Illinois visiting brethren who went over to Washington to see the sights of that city.

The visiting Masons were guests of their Alexandria brethren during their stay and every attention was shown them. They expressed their most hearty appreciation of Virginia hospitality which they said was truly unbounded.

The floral decorations at the banquet held last night were by the Kramer Floral Company and were beautiful in the extreme. The flowers were lovely and most artistically arranged. The Kramer Company also prepared the handsome wreath which the members of the Chamber of Commerce placed on Washington's tomb yesterday morning.

S. KANN-SONS & CO.
THE BUSY COUNTRY

Washington D. C.

35c Best China Matting
at 25c a yd

We have 200 rolls to sell at this price tomorrow. These are best Seamless China Matting, heavy corded salvage, closely woven of short palm straw.

Choice of many patterns such as checks, stripes, blocks, and plain white—in fact everything that is good and new will be found in these at 25c a yard tomorrow. Wouldn't new Matting look nice in some room of your home? Third floor—Up-holstery Section.

RAMBLERS' CLUB BANQUET.

The banquet of the Ramblers' Club at their hall on Oameon street last night was, as had been anticipated, one of the most enjoyable ever given by that organization.

Messrs. E. J. Robbitt, Geo. W. Roberts, Geo. N. Proctor, Thos. Hersberger, Louis Brill, H. L. Ohehrie, Joo. T. Downey, J. Samuel S. monos, Frank Mason, Harry Hayden, A. (Billy) Roberts, Chas. A. Dray, Geo. E. French, Joo. T. Langley, Howard Hardy, Raymond Lyles, Carl Metzger and S. Wheeler, forming the banquet committee, had left nothing undone that could have in any way have aided to the enjoyment of all present.

Mr. Frank Mason was toastmaster, and he ably and gracefully presided.

The following was the menu:

Oyster Cocktail Lynnhaven Raw

Cream of Potatoes, a la Crouton

Celery Radishes Olives

Roast Turkey Cranberry Sauce

Smithfield Ham Beef Tongue

Chicken Salad Potato Salad

Pearl Onions Gherkins Chow Chow

Sliced Tomatoes Saratoga Chips

Oranges Maltosa Grapes

Beer Cafe Noir Punch Cigars

After all had heartily enjoyed the choice viands speeches were made by Messrs. J. Fred Birrell, Jacob Brill, Alex. J. Wedderburn, E. J. Roberts and Louis Brill, of this city, and Messrs. Harry Hayden, Joseph Crawley, and John O'Connor, of Washington, all of which were heartily enjoyed.

Messrs. George Kahn, John Connell, of Washington, Thos. McCune, and the Ramblers' Quartette rendered vocal music in a creditable manner during the evening.

The hall was decorated with national colors and the table was covered with electric lights and ferns and palms. Portraits of Washington were hung on the walls. The piano used on the occasion was kindly loaned by Mr. C. W. O'Meara, manager of the Cable Company.

Mr. Robert Grimes was the caterer of the occasion, and the taste he manifested in this important part of the affair and the inviting manner in which everything had been prepared were justly complimented. There were present a number of guests from Washington.

The Ramblers' Club, while comparatively young in years, is now an Alexandria institution, and its annual banquets and outings are always enjoyable.

ALEXANDRIA HOSPITAL.

The board of managers of the Alexandria Hospital acknowledges the following donations: L. M. Blackford, $10; Woodlawn Circle King's Daughters, Acorn, $5; a friend, old linen; First Baptist Church, $10; St. Vincent de Paul Society, $25; Children's Ward Society, $150; S. Luke's Circle, $3; D. A. R., a box of cookies; and Miss Pettit, reading matter.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. C. E. Bradley left today for New York.

Mr. George E. Heptum, is suffering from paralysis of the left side at his home on south Fairfax street.

Rev. R. Ashton Curtis, of St. Mark's Church, Washington, will preach in Grace Church tonight.

Mr. F. L. Slaymaker has returned from Montgomery, Ala., where he has been for the past month on business.

Mr. E. H. Hammond has gone to Hagerstown, Md., on a business trip.

CIRCUIT COURT FOR THE COUNTY.

[Judge J. B. T. Thornton, presiding.]

The court today has been engaged in the trial of the case of Fred Schwab vs. the Luna Park Company, suit for $10,000 damages for the loss of his foot, while complainant was operating a serial swing at Luna Park last summer. The grand jury has returned the following indictment: Wm. McPadden, for larceny; Albert S. roller, colored, for assault and battery; and robbery from the person; Joe Rice, colored, for grand larceny; and Bernard Oline, alias Mr. Reid, for seduction.

PYTHIANS EXPECT VISITORS.

Oriental Lodge, No. 6, Knights of Pythias, held a very interesting meeting last night. One member was added to the role, and one application for membership presented. On Tuesday, March 1st, Oriental Lodge expects to be visited by Past Grand Chancellor C. H. Woodward, of the District of Columbia; Past Chancellor O. B. Grey and others of Ballston, Va. Dr. C. F. Russell, of Herndon, has also been invited to be present.

OYSTER ROAST.

The members of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company celebrated Washington's birthday by an oyster roast at their hall last night. There was a large attendance and the affair though informal was enjoyable throughout.

The Lindner Shoe for Ladies shoe wear has no equal. John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

The store of clothing at Mr. R. Lee Field's sale on King street will close Saturday. All in want of clothing and furnishing goods at low prices will do well to take advantage of this sale.

Standard Army Shoes for men. The most comfortable and durable shoe made can be had at J. A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

There is a fair supply of oysters at the wharves. They sell at 60 cents a bushel.

PORTNER'S

Bock Beer

NOW ON SALE.

feb23 6t

L.OST—On King, between Fairfax and Washington streets, a FIVE DOLLAR NOTE. Suitable reward for its return to Gazette office.

L.OST—A Maltese colored PULL DOG; front feet white and white breast; has bob tail. Suitable reward for its return to ALAN HUME, Mount Ida.

feb23 3t

WANTED $5,000 on CITY REAL ESTATE, secured by two first mortgages, bearing 6 per cent interest for three or five years. Address P. O. Box 3, Alexandria, Va.

feb23 3t

FOR SALE—A STEINWAY SQUARE PIANO in perfect condition and will be sold cheap. Apply at 122 north Royal Street.

feb23 2t

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The first degree was conferred upon seven candidates in Saratoga Lodge of Old Followers last night. Eight candidates received the second degree.

The Chamber of Commerce of this city is contemplating the erection of a suitable building for their purpose in this city.

The regular business meeting of the Allison W. O. T. U. will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Children's Home on Duke street.

There will be an illustrated lecture on the Yosemite Valley by Rev. O. D. Bulla in the M. E. Church South next Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

When you are young you don't care Life in the hazy days down't take the serious phrase of after years. Everything is free and easy. But eventually each succeeding year will add a wrinkle to your brow. You see, when you're old you've got to care. There's someone home who cares for you and if you're the man you think you are you'll treat her to the best there is in life. You'll let her come to the Auth Market for those irresistibly delicious Arch Sausages and food products. Eat 'em and you'll enjoy the joy of living. Sylvan Blondheim, The Auth Stand and The Auth Market.

Best Elgin Creamery Butter, 35c lb. Good Country Roll Butter, 25c lb. Guaranteed Eggs, 30c dozen; Seedless Raisins, 6c lb.; 3 lbs. Best Evaporated Peaches, 25c; 3 lbs. Large Prunes, 25c; 4 cans Best Tomatoes, 25c; 4 cans Sugar Corn, 25c; 4 cans String Beans, 25c; 3 cans Fish Roe, 25c; 3 cans Singapore Pineapple, 25c; 3 large cans Peas, 25c; 3 large cans Apples, 25c; Sweet Florida Oranges, 15c dozen; Walnut Kernels, 25c lb.; Fresh Florida Tomatoes, 15c lb.; 3 cans Early June Peas, 25c; 7 lbs. Pure Bunkwheat, 25c. W. F. WOODS & SON, Royal and Wolfe streets.

Ladies—For solid comfort, wear the Red Cross Shoe. John A. Marshall & Bro., 422 King street.

YOU

Will know why we sell so much coffee, if you try our Palace Brand. Fresh from the roaster to you.

25c pound

Midland Butter

Fresh from the churn.

38c pound

BEST ELGIN BUTTER 35c lb.

ROLL BUTTER, 30c lb

Call, phone or write

Edward Quinn & Sons

St. Asaph and Oronoco Streets.

DRY GOODS.

Woodward and Lothrop.

New York—Washington—Paris

Our Store's Thirtieth Birthday.

This is our Thirtieth Business Birthday. According to our custom, we are holding an Anniversary Sale, which will be continued throughout the week. Each of our three stores and nine departments contributes one or more lines of seasonable, practical merchandise, offered at an under-value price. We have made liberal preparations for this sale, and think the quantities sufficient to last the entire week.

A number of items appear in the following list:

Women's, Misses', and Girls'

Ready-to-wear Outergarments.

Dresses and Costumes for All Occasions.

The strongest fashion notes and the latest modes and styles in many rich patterns, colorings, and materials. A vast number of handsome fabrics will be in vogue, some notable ones being foulards and rough crepe weaves; also velvets.

Tailored and Demi-Tailored Suits.

Tailored and Demi-tailored Suits for street and afternoon wear and for formal occasions. Unobtrusive wash mixtures, handsome checks, and hair-lined striped patterns are in great favor; the plain colors are also numerous.

Imported and Domestic Coats and Wraps.

These are made in models to conform with other garments and are unusually attractive. The new long, rolling revers and various collar and waist-line suggestions are all here.

Silk and Lingerie Blouses and Waists.

Shown in exquisite models and beautifully trimmed in many effective ways.

Misses' and Girls' Apparel.

Hosiery of beautiful creations for misses and girls. Every new idea and style tendency is fully represented. Some notable Handmade Lingerie Dresses and Linen Coat Suits; also pretty models in party frocks, richly trimmed.

Spring Footwear

that appeals to the sense of beauty as well as common sense is the kind universally demanded by sensible people. They find the shoes offered by A. Katz fulfill their desire better than any other; hence, when style and comfort combined are wanted, the best dressers find our shoes ideal in every respect.

A. KATZ

80 King Street, Alexandria, Va.

STATEMENT

Citizens' National Bank

of Alexandria, Va., January 31, 1910.

OFFICERS:

President, Edward L. Daingerfield; Vice President, Carroll Pierce, Richard M. Green, Cashier. E. E. Payne, Asst. Cashier.

DIRECTORS: J. C. Smoot, Edward L. Daingerfield, Jas W. Roberts, Worth Hulfish, Carroll Pierce, M. A. Ahern, Urban S. Lambert.

RESOURCES. LIABILITIES.

Loans $687,951.44 Capital $100,000.00
U. S. Bonds to secure circulation . . . 100,000.00 Surplus 100,000.00
Bonds to secure U. S. Deposit . . . 1,000.00 Undivided Profits . . . 18,049.91
Other Bonds and Stocks 49,986.56 Circulation 95,85